

Make Sustainable Palm Oil the Norm! Here's How:

- Don't boycott products that contain palm oil; buy from sustainable brands instead. Palm oil produces more oil per hectare of land than other oils, so when grown sustainably, it is an environmentally-friendly ingredient.
- Encourage companies to use the certified sustainable palm oil logo on their products very few do, even though they use sustainable palm oil.
- Contact your favourite companies and urge them to go sustainable.
- Share what you learn with others.
