

About the REDSIDE DACE

Clinostomus elongatus

- ◆ Redside dace is the only minnow in Canada to leap out of the water and catch flying insects
- ◆ A sensitive species, reddsidedace require clear, cool water with stream bank plants and shrubs
- ◆ Threats include: urban development, agricultural practices and invasive species

Photo credit: Nelson Amard, TRCA

Upturned Mouth

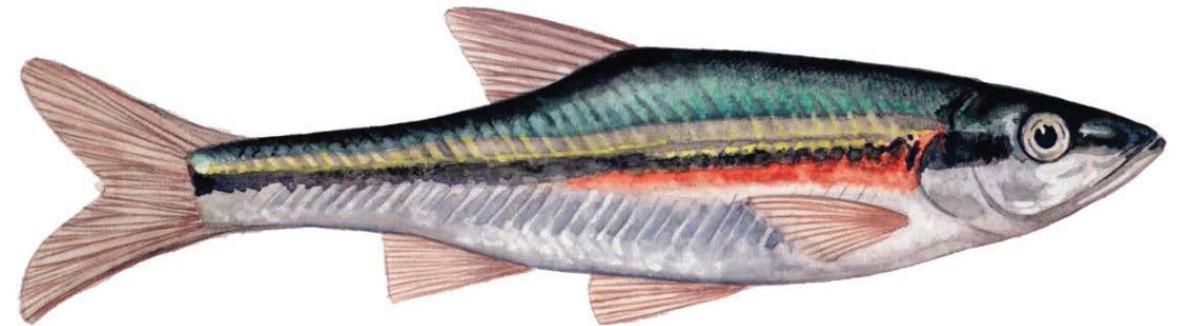

Bright red stripe

7.5 cm (average size)

Visit
www.torontozoo.com
and
www.ontariostreams.on.ca
For volunteer opportunities and to learn more about the reddside dace!

SAVE THE REDSIDE DACE

An endangered species in your neighbourhood!

Partners Redside Dace Implementation Team
Fisheries and Oceans Canada
Ontario Streams
Conservation Authorities of Ontario

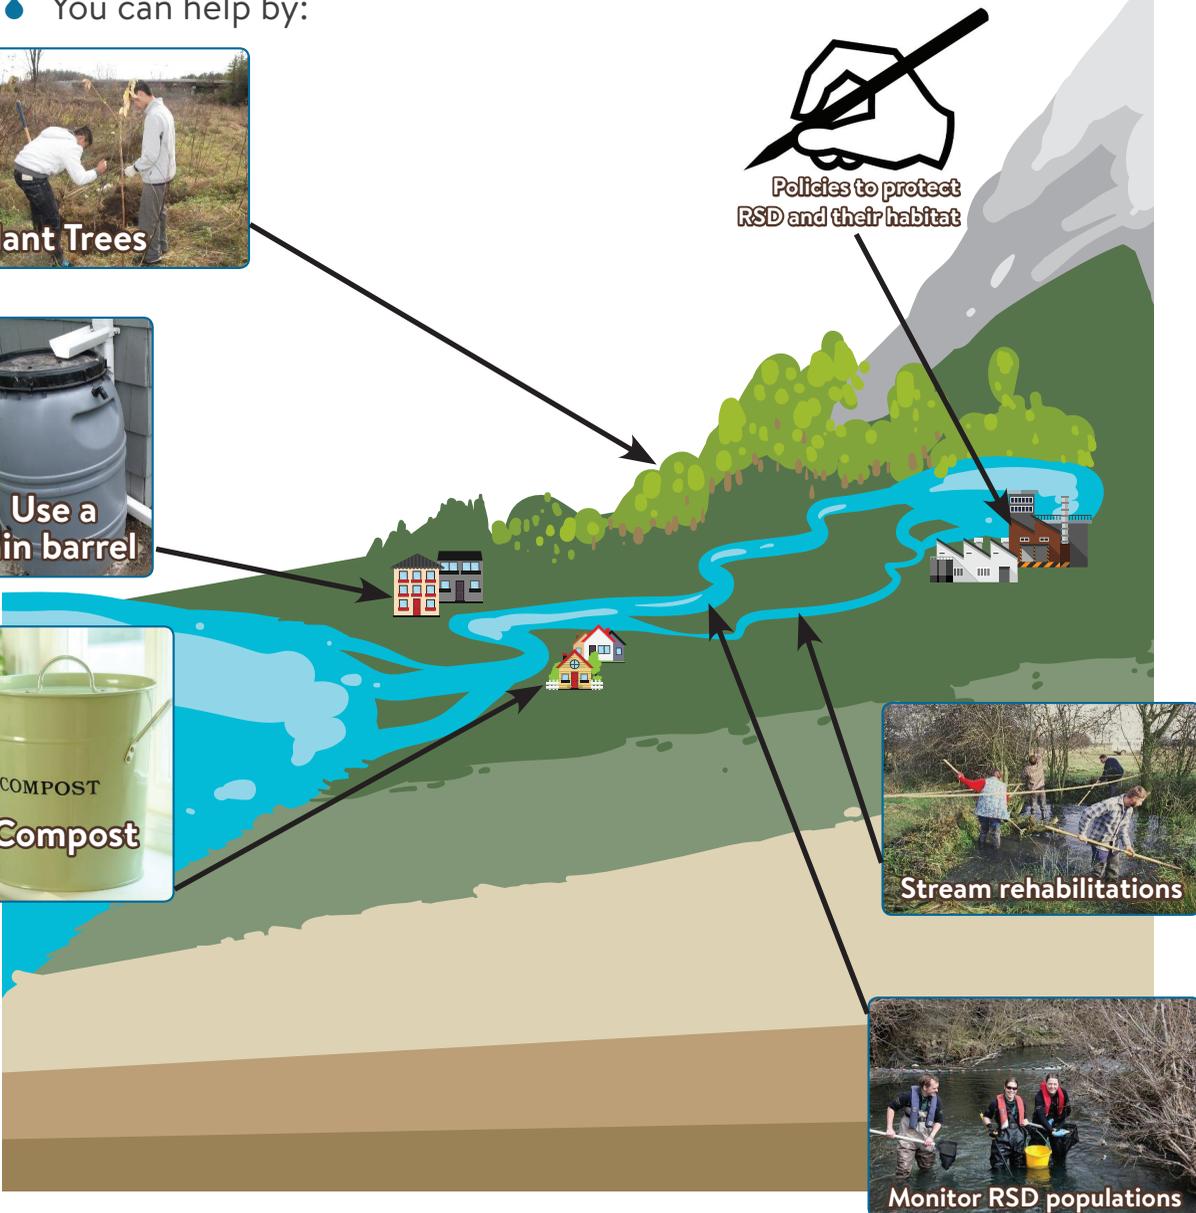

The Redside Dace NEEDS YOUR HELP!

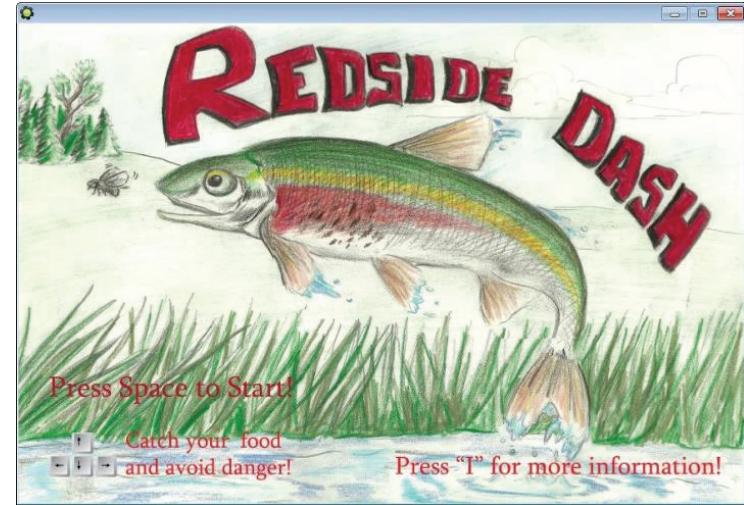

💧 You can help by:

💧 Recovery Team Actions:

Play REDSIDE DASH!

Watch GRANDFATHER FROG Meets Red, the Redside Dace

Find both on the Great Lakes Program page of the Toronto Zoo website!

<http://www.torontozoo.com/conservation/GreatLakesConservation.asp>