

Horseshoe Crab

Limulus polyphemus

HOME:

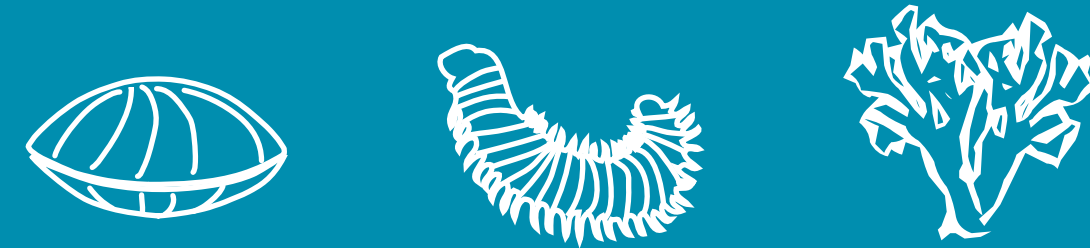

SIZE:

Most are 7–12 inches wide and weigh 2–5 pounds

DIET:

Clams, marine worms, and some seaweed

DID YOU KNOW?

- They are more closely related to spiders and scorpions than to crabs.
- They don't have any jaws, so they crush their food with their legs before they eat it.

PREDATORS:

Sharks and sea turtles

