2.0 SCOPE OF WORK OVERVIEW AND BACKGROUND

2.1 SCOPE OF WORK OVERVIEW

The Zoo is seeking a highly qualified and experienced full service advertising agency partner to provide strategic and creative services preferably on a pro-bono basis, excluding hard production costs to produce materials. The agency shall be the principal provider to the Zoo for marketing/advertising to a variety of target audiences including families in mainstream, cultural markets and leisure travel. The selected agency will help provide the following advertising services that include but are not limited to:

- a) Develop and produce strategic and integrated advertising assets to achieve objectives with all identified markets;
- b) Development of creative strategies, creation and production of consumer advertising elements across all platforms to support the mainstream and leisure travel advertising plans;
- c) Assist in obtaining the no cost, lowest cost and added value for any and all production expenses;
- d) Itemized bi-weekly budget control, tracking and reporting;
- e) Pre-press production of all advertising;
- f) Attend and participate in meetings, presentations to Zoo management, Zoo committees and Board meetings as required;

The Toronto Zoo requires a full service advertising agency with extensive experience in consumer and retail advertising campaigns, branding, and digital/online/e-marketing. The agency should be able:

- i. To develop a summer advertising campaign to support the Zoo's attendance and revenue goals and to support special exhibits;
- ii. To recommend strategies to expand the impact of the Zoo's advertising campaigns/marketing programs to target audiences within the available budget.

The agency should demonstrate a high inclination to use research in the development of strategic platforms for the basis of campaigns and have a strong methodology for measuring effectiveness of agency advertising programs and integrated marketing efforts. The agency should also demonstrate the ability to communicate effectively and in a timely manner with the Toronto Zoo.

The Toronto Zoo encourages responses from advertising agencies that will be willing to provide strategic consulting and creative development services on a pro-bono basis. Specific compensation for execution and production of materials will be negotiated.

a) Conflict of Interest Guidelines

The agency, if selected, must submit an agreement to not represent and/or terminate all conflict of interest accounts. This may include, but not be limited to, Greater Toronto Area attractions and wildlife activist organizations. The Toronto Zoo is to be advised of all new business solicitations by the agency that could be perceived to constitute a conflict of interest. With regards to the matter of branch or subsidiary offices of an agency, it should be clear that all such offices are considered as part of the total corporate entity of the agency.

b) Copyright and Reproduction Rights

All creative produced and elements of the campaign created by the selected agency for the Toronto Zoo during the contract period shall become the property of the Toronto Zoo, as will all materials, film, negatives, art, etc as well as campaign treatments developed but not utilized.

The Toronto Zoo maintains the right to use any materials generated by the agency in any other Zoo material generated by Zoo personnel and may do so without agency consent and approval. The Zoo acknowledges certain legal constraints and as such requires universal releases for materials unless cost considerations become prohibitive such as model releases, music, photographs, video, etc and retains sole right to use materials created for the Zoo as it sees fit. Restrictions on contracted materials such as stock photos, voice talent, models, etc., will be provided up front with implications stated. In general, existing materials or buy-out materials should be incorporated.

c) Printing of materials

The Toronto Zoo reserves the right to negotiate and directly contract all printing necessary for the implementation of any program. Creative and related specifications from the agency will be coordinated with and provided to the Zoo Marketing, Communications and Partnerships Division prior to printing. An agency may be asked to plan to contract the printing of materials with the consultation of the Marketing, Communications and Partnerships Division, but the Zoo reserves the right to contract them as well. Any printing contracted on behalf of the Zoo by the agency will be done on a net basis.

d) Acquisition of goods and services

Any goods and services (excluding media) over $1,000.00 acquired by the agency on behalf of the Zoo must be supported by three (3) quotes for the Zoo staff advance approval. For major purchases, actual specifications used to obtain bids/quotes should be provided as well. Sole service purchases, or selection or recommendation of a vendor that is not the lowest bidder should be supported in writing as to the basis for such a recommendation. Also, repetitive purchase of the same goods or services may be supported by only periodic bidding.

e) Contract term

The Toronto Zoo seeks to contract with the selected agency effective 2015-06-10 and continuing through to 2015-12-31 for a period of seven (7) months with the potential for an extension through to 2016-12-31, granted at the sole discretion of the Toronto Zoo within 30 days of the end of the initial contract term.

The successful proponent will be expected to enter into a formal agreement similar to the attached sample agreement satisfactory to the Toronto Zoo.

2.2 TORONTO ZOO BACKGROUND

The Toronto Zoo opened in 1974 and is Canada's premier zoo and one of the top 10 zoos in the world. The Zoo is fully accredited by the Canadian Association of Zoos and Aquariums (CAZA). The Zoo is a not-for-profit and is stewarded by a Board of Management supported by a professional staff of 277 permanent, approximately 126 non-perm FTE's and more than 400 volunteers. The Zoo is home to over 5000 animals representing 450 different species, many of which are classified as endangered in the world. The Zoo's mandate is to build awareness of and involvement in the conservation of animals and their habitats. The Zoo undertakes scientific research for the advancement of wildlife management and for the conservation of irreplaceable genetic resources, both animal and plant.

The Toronto Zoo site occupies 710 acres located in the Rouge Valley on the north east side of the City of Toronto. The Zoo is open every day except December 25th. Each year the Zoo welcomes approximately 1.3 million visitors with approximately 80% of visitors attending between the months of May to October. In the last 5 years, attendance achieved has ranked in the top ten years in the Zoo's history. The Zoo is a highly regarded educational resource with over 130,000 children from K-12 visiting annually and enrolled in extracurricular educational programs and tours. In addition, the Zoo offers a Membership program and currently has a Membership household base of more than 28,500.

2.3 CURRENT FEATURE EXHIBITS / PLANS

The giant panda exhibit opened in the spring 2013 for a five (5) year period (2013-2018), and will be open during the 2015 Pan Am Games in Toronto. It continues to be one of the most popular experiences at the Toronto Zoo and appeals to a whole new generation of youth and families from all cultures in southern Ontario, Border States and provinces that have never experienced Giant Pandas up close.

As one of the world's most endangered species, the Toronto Zoo is honoured to host the Giant Pandas and contribute to the survival of the species for generations to come. The Toronto Zoo is thrilled to join the small group of countries and highly respected zoo organizations outside of China that have the conservation and research programs, professional expertise, and facilities to provide excellent care for a breeding pair of pandas.

During the summer of 2015, the Zoo will also be opening a new exhibit featuring the worldwide premier of National Geographic's Air, Land and Sea which is an augmented reality experience never before experienced in Canada. To complement this, there will also be a National Geographic Photography Exhibit. In addition, the Zoo will also be launching Canada's only cheetah run where visitors will be able to witness firsthand the speed of the world's fastest land mammal.

2.4 TORONTO ZOO MARKETING

Each year, the Zoo marketing group plan and execute a comprehensive and integrated marketing plan to ensure that consumers visit the Zoo each year. The plan includes special events, paid and promotional advertising (TV, radio, print, digital/online, out-of-home, tourism, social media), in-house magazines and collateral), cross-promotions, public and media relations, group sales, website, membership acquisition/retention strategies and sponsorship. Strategies and plans support exhibits, events, public and media relations, membership, education and conservation activities throughout the year. Zoo marketing staff lead and support cross-functional teams to ensure that communication plans are integrated, focused and maximized and that the event/program activities are well executed.

The objectives are to:

- Achieve and exceed the annual attendance targets
- Build awareness of the Toronto Zoo brand as the fun, 'wow of nature' destination
- Build awareness of and participation in the diversity of educational and conservation programs offered by the Zoo
- Build the loyal user base through the Zoo's membership program
